Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "a blocking order" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered. A process flow diagram can be included to show the missing feature.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show "process flow and constraint" as described in the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
- 4. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Application/Control Number: 10/036,264

Art Unit: 2125

Claims 1, 5, 10, 17, 19 and 21 are indefinite, as none of the included figures, show the process flow diagram with constraint to accomplish the claimed method or system for optimizing the maintenance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 6. Claims 1-21 as best understood are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hohkibara et al. (U. S. Patent 6,438,436).

As to claims 1-16, Hohkibara discloses a method to optimize maintenance of assets and production (column 3, lines 17-25). Hohkibara very broadly explain the method of maintenance and production schedules, as well as maintaining the production while the maintenance of assets is in progress.

As to claims 17-21, Hohkibara discloses a system (column 2, lines 50-53) to optimize maintenance of assets and production.
